

FLYING MUSTANGS RECEIVE PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARD

2007 MontanaFair Report

Girl Scout hotdogs, Norskies and fried everything..... MontanaFair 2007 is over for another year. BFM had a very popular static display this year, including airplanes, cars and helicopters, and garnering the People's Choice Award one night. The new ribbon will join our other fair winnings in the clubhouse shortly. Our booth also generated a lot of interest in R/C with an active building project by Jim Sherman, a mini-theatre presentation of the complete set of AMA DVD movies thanks to an AV setup from George Goforth, and the ever-popular computer simulator which was made available by Jake Thuesen and kept humming by big brother Ben. During the eight days of the fair the booth staff gave away 100 copies of the new color club brochure that Steve Hergett worked up earlier this year. Hopefully this will generate a few new faces in the pits at the runway and track!

Del and Jim hang the colors.

Staffing the fair display takes a minimum of 144 man-hours, not counting setup, teardown, and pre-event arrangements with

A penny for your thoughts Dick?

No, Grandma, we are not ready to go on the rides!

Rich spruces up the small item display case.

Who is having more fun here? Check out the english being applied through the tongue! I need to learn this technique.

Display models provided by:
Steve Carlson
Jim Sherman
Richard Cavallary
George Goforth
Del Schmidt
Dick Jones
Paul Yourk
Roman Yourk
John Hahn
John Poulson

"Grandpa! Retract your gear!!!"

Tim distributes BFM brochures.

Steve instructing a new "student".

the hobby hall staff. Staffing this year included a full cross section of the club, new and old members. Special thanks go to Tim and Roger McCollough who anchored the team. Check out the sidebars to this story to see who the members were this year who made BFM participation in MontanaFair possible. Great job everyone!

Display Staff:
Jim Sherman
Richard Cavallary
George Goforth
Del Schmidt
Clay Ness
Dick Jones
Paul Yourk
Roman Yourk
A.J. Rohrer
Jeff Rohrer
Tim McCullough
Roger McCollough
Lynda Hahn
Erik Runstad
John Poulson
Carl Thuesen
Don Jones
Steve Garr
Darren Kobelt
Kayla Wittman
Rodney Broderson

